

UNDERDOSING

The following are important documentation tips and strategies for this disease/condition as required by the specificity needed in ICD-10:

- Report any time a patient takes less medication than what is prescribed by a provider or manufacturer's instruction.
- Specify any associated relapse or exacerbation of a medical condition for which a drug is prescribed due to the reduction in dose.
- Detail any known non-compliance or complication of care with underdosing.